

Questions Every Coach Should Answer Prior To Coaching Others

Who supports your new career path?

Will you have business cards or brochures?

Have you decided on a niche?

Is coaching going to be incorporated into your current career or are you looking for a new career as a professional coach?

Do you have an answer to the question "what do you do for a living?" that reflects your career path? This is also known as an elevator speech.

Will you be working from home?

Where do you plan to have your office?

What dreams and plans do you have for your coaching business?

What does your ideal day look like? How does coaching fit into it?

Do you plan to host seminars or workshops?
